

Northside Baptist Church
Associate Pastor of Family Ministries (Full-Time)
Job Posting

Northside Baptist Church in Mechanicsville, VA is seeking an enthusiastic full-time Associate Pastor of Family Ministries, who loves the Lord and leads by example. They will minister and seek to grow the children, youth, and young families by encouraging their spiritual growth within and outside of the church through Bible teachings and special programs. Position reports to the Senior Pastor and salary will be determined based on commensurate experience. (Visit the church website [Northside Baptist Church - Mechanicsville VA] and Facebook page [Northside Baptist Church, Mechanicsville, VA] to learn more about our 'Encouraging, Joyful, and Compassionate' church family.

Responsibilities

- Commitment to a full-time ministry position that includes flexible office hours, Sunday's, Wednesday's evenings, and other days of the week for specific activities and programs.
- Create environments, activities and programming that will facilitate learning and encourage spiritual growth.
- Develop and provide age appropriate curriculum for Sunday School, Sunday's Children's Church during Worship Services, Wednesday night activities, Vacation Bible School, and missions projects and trips. Will coordinate Sunday and Wednesday night programs with Christian Education Leader.
- Communicate to children, youth, families, church, and staff to inform and ensure effective ministries. Includes communicating with the Pastor and staff to ensure coordination of programs and dates.
- Review and discuss activities and programs with the Senior Pastor and assist in leading Sunday Worship and Wednesday night services as needed.
- Create programs that provide outreach opportunities in the community.
- Utilize creative methods and ideas to reach specific groups and families and continue to engage and maintain their interest in the love of our Lord.
- Recruit, train, and care for family ministry volunteers.

Qualifications

- Undergraduate degree in theology, religion, Biblical studies, or major related to family ministry such as psychology, social work, or family studies. With two years of experience in children and youth ministry or family ministry with a passion for reaching young families with the gospel.
- Ordained or eligible for ordination as a minister in a Baptist Church. Includes working towards a Divinity Degree.
- Strong organizational, leadership, and communication skills.
- Self-motivated and committed to church ministry.
- Willing to learn and receive additional training to increase ministerial competence.

Go to the church employment page (Northside Baptist Employment) and click on "How to Apply" for information on how to submit your resume, statement, and contact information.