Each participant is expected to be familiar with each selection prior to the workshop so that Mary can work more on the interpretation of each piece rather than learning notes and rhythms.

Clinician: Mary McDonald

Mary McDonald is a lifelong resident of Knoxville, TN. She is the youngest in a large family with a mother who played the piano by ear. Committed to teach her children to read music, her mother schooled some of the older children using an old piano method book, but after they left the piano, it was five-year-old Mary who would slip onto the bench and play the music she'd heard her siblings playing. She never looked back and today her extraordinary natural gifting and her exuberant personality have carried her into the hearts of people in congregations across the country. Mary's heart for ministry is to assist others in drawing closer to the throne of grace.

Mary's energy and charisma served her well when she became the first ever woman President of the Southern Baptist Church Music Conference. But whether serving as accompanist for the Tennessee Men's Chorale, her local church, or receiving awards for her numerous compositions, her desire remains the same, "to give God glory for the songs He has allowed me to compose. He alone, is the true Creator behind my pen."

In 2011, after serving as sacred music editor for the Lorenz Corporation for more than 20 years, Mary answered a new call. She resigned her position in order to serve the church in a different way. Since then, she has served as an independent artist. She is in constant demand in churches across the nation for Composer Weekends. In addition, Mary serves as host for many of the top Choral Music Dealer Conferences.

When Mary isn't out sharing her music, she and her husband, Brian, live a quiet life. They have been married for 36 years, have 2 married children and four grandchildren.
